

Friday 27th January

Congratulations to Mrs Togneri for being awarded Stirling Council's Leading Light Award for Service Above and Beyond. As we all know, Mrs Togneri does a fantastic job supporting all our technical and digital work in the school. She also gives so much of her time to the Eco Club and working with our partners in the community. We are all proud that she has been recognized in this way.

U14's Football the U14's football team should attend a short meeting at break today in the dance studio.
