

Friday 3rd February

Diversity Group Diversity group proudly presents THE IMITATION GAME. The 31st of January 2017 marked the enactment of the 'Alan Turing law' which pardoned thousands of men for crimes that are no longer illegal. To honour the great man who single-handedly helped to end World War 2 and injustice towards gay men, we are screening 'The Imitation Game' on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday lunchtime this week (w/c 6th Feb).

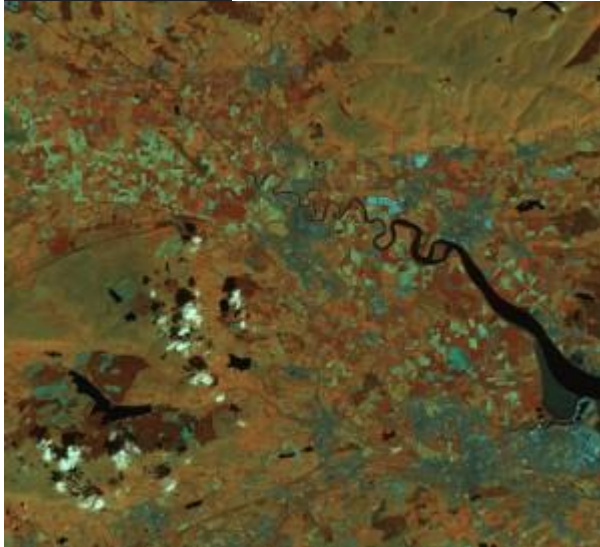

Junk Kouture Thank you very much for your votes yesterday! Today is the last day to vote for our teams! Please take 30seconds to cast a vote that counts as 10% of their overall score in the competition. When instructed by your form teacher, please get your phone out > go on facebook > search 'Junk Kouture' and follow the link to vote for our teams 'Mermaid' and 'Steam punk'. The link has also been shared on Stirling High's facebook page. Your votes would be greatly appreciated as it would really boost Stirling High's team's scores!

UK Space Agency Satellite Data Competition

Young people have the chance to win £10,000 in a competition to come up with ideas on how to use satellite data to improve life on Earth. The competition is split into three age categories: 11 – 16; 16 – 18; 18 – 22 and entries may be made by a team, or as individuals. If you are interested in entering either by yourself to part of a team come along to Room 213 (Dr McDonald's lab) on Friday lunchtime at 12:45 for a short meeting. You don't have to be a scientist to have a good idea and use the data.

Junk Kouture Our teams need your help! Two of our amazing Junk Kouture teams have made it through to the Grand Final in Glasgow on 9th February. 10% of their final mark is an online vote- you can vote twice a day, until Friday 3rd so we really need your help to boost our scores! When instructed by your form teacher, please get your phone out > go on facebook > search 'Junk Kouture' and follow the link to vote for our teams 'Mermaid' and 'Steam punk'. The link has also been shared on Stirling High's facebook page. Your votes would be greatly appreciated as it would really boost Stirling High's team's scores!

Pupil Council There will be a pupil council meeting during Period 3 in the conference room. All pupil council members should attend.

S5-6 There is an opportunity for one S5 or S6 pupil to participate in the Rotary Youth Leadership Award (RYLA). This is a week long residential course taking place in July and is an excellent opportunity which offers young people an opportunity to participate in a programme of physical and intellectual activities, which will develop skills in:

- Team working
- Positive leadership
- Communication
- Problem Solving
- Decision making

On these foundations are built self-confidence and self-esteem which are vital aspects of responsible and global citizenship.

Any pupils currently in S5 or S6 who is interested in applying or would like more information please contact Mr Macleod before the end of this week.
