For the attention of Senior Pupils Army Officer Careers presentation to be held at the Glasgow and Strathclyde Universities' Officer Training Corps Headquarters on Wednesday 5 October 2016 at 6.00pm. The team are coming from the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst in Surrey and will give a bespoke professional interactive presentation. The presentation will promote a career as an Officer in the Army, Regular and Reserve and will deliver information about the selection process, Army Officer training at the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst and talk about the different roles and experiences of an Army Officer. There will also be an opportunity to talk to a number of serving young officers and officer cadets about their experiences and ask questions. The location for the event is Glasgow and Strathclyde UOTC, 95 University Place, Glasgow, G12 8SU. The event is aimed at pupils aged 16 years and over, at both those who have already expressed an interest in an Army career and those who may just be curious to find out more about what the Army does and has to offer – the presentation will tackle misperceptions and challenge stereotypes, so ideal for those who want a varied, challenging and meaningful career that hitherto may not have thought the Army was for them. Parents and Guardians are also most welcome to attend.

Attention Girls! For those of you interested in STEM subjects – Science, Technology, Engineering & Maths, especially those applying to uni this year!! The New York Academy of Sciences is inviting girls aged 13 – 19 years to participate in an exciting initiative called the 1000 Girls, 1000 Futures programme with the Global STEM Alliance! Fourteen Scottish girls participated in the pilot programme last year with two girls being invited to represent Scotland at the concluding event in New York. Visit this blog to see how one girl
