Professor Adam McBride is an excellent speaker who inspires all who hear to him talk and infuses enthusiasm into all his listeners. If you have every asked the question "Who would ever use Maths?" this is the talk for you. Go along and find out.

University of Stirling 50th Anniversary: Science Cabaret

It is the University of Stirling's 50th Anniversary!!

They will be celebrating with a doors open event on Saturday 18th March.

The Faculty of Natural Sciences invites you to join their fabulous Science Cabaret. The show will feature a diverse selection of short, highly visual presentations disclosing thought-provoking facts and stimulating topics which represent much of the research carried out in the Faculty of Natural Sciences. We are running two completely different hour long sessions and you are welcome to book into one or both. We will be covering topics ranging from biodiversity, to life on Mars and from facial recognition to microbiology.

Session 1: 10.30 to 11.30am

Session 2: Noon to 1pm

Each session is free, but spaces are limited and so it is recommended that you book a ticket to reserve a place.

Tickets can be booked at: <http://www.stir.ac.uk/events/calendarofevents/2017/march/communityopendoorsdaysciencecabaret/>

Or google "community open doors Stirling University"

Get #ReadyToVote

16 and 17 year olds can vote in the 2017 Scottish council elections.

This means that if you're 16 or over on 4 May 2017, you'll be able to vote – but you need to register first. It only takes a few minutes to register online.

On 1st March 2017 we will be helping 16 and 17 year olds get #ReadyToVote by running a registration event at Stirling High School.

This is your opportunity to join the 80,000 16 and 17 year olds who registered to vote in the last election.

If you're 16 or over you'll need your date of birth and National Insurance number to register to vote. If you can't find your national insurance number, visit: gov.uk/lost-national-insurance-number. (If you're not yet 16 you won't need your National Insurance number to register).
