

Weekly bulletin 25 January

Cross-Country

All pupils who are competing in the cross country championships on Thursday afternoon should remember to bring with them a plastic bag, a total change of clothes, and shoes that they don't mind getting muddy. All pupils competing should report to the Games Hall straight after lunch on Thursday.

Locker keys found

Would the following pupils please come to the school office to collect lockers keys which have been found: Sarah Purser, & Euan Stirling.

Lunchcards found

Would the following pupils please come to the school office to collect lunchcards which have been found: Neil Anderson, Lindsay Bowie, Declan Cairney, Christopher Clarkson, Finlay Muir, Kelsey Richardson, Rebecca Rookes, Alastair Tweedle, Hope Wandless.

Musical Theatre

The group will start back on Tuesday 2nd February in Mrs McKinlay's room. We will be doing excerpts from Grease. New members welcome.

Science cabaret at Macrobert

Always wanted to know what researchers at the University were up to, but were afraid to ask? Come to our science cabaret!

The show will feature a diverse selection of short, highly visual presentations disclosing thought-provoking facts and stimulating topics from animal attraction to catching criminals.

This is a free but ticketed event in which audience members will be able to enjoy novel research from biology, computing, health sciences, mathematics, and psychology, to be held at the Macrobert Arts Centre.

Arrive at 6.45pm for drinks. The show starts at 7pm and is expected to end at 9pm. There will be an interval. Suitable for ages 12+. Sign up here.

S2 Battlefields

A reminder to pupils participating in this trip that a second payment of £50 was due before the Christmas Holiday. If you have not yet paid this, please ensure you bring the money to Miss Notman in room 122 ASAP.

Mathematical Masterclasses (S3)

Interested in Maths and want to speak to those that use it in the real world? If so, there are Mathematical Masterclass workshops taking place in Stirling University. The first one starts on Saturday 30th January at 10:30am. If you would like more information or a letter to attend speak to Miss F Withey (Rm 022) by Friday.

Berlin Trip

Could all passports and EHIC cards please be handed into Miss Notman ASAP. Staff will keep these for the duration of the trip. Information will also be posted on twitter @SHS HIST.

S2 Course choice

A pupil from every S2 form class to the office to collect the course choice booklet for the classroom.

S1 Boxer

Sean Coyle of S1 is off to Newcastle this weekend to box for Scotland against England. Good Luck Sean.