Pupils applying to university

There are a number of pupils who have been to Pupil Support to ask about dropping subjects. This is still to be discussed by DHTs and PTs but before you do this it is strongly advised that you check with the universities that you applied for to make sure that they are happy with you dropping this subject. You should contact the individual universities phoning general admissions and explain to them what you wish to drop. They may be OK with your change or they may rescind your offer. If you still wish to change you must e-mail UCAS at qualsupport@ucas.ac.uk. Your e-mail must include your personal id number and a quick sentence stating that you are dropping a subject.
